

On August 13, 2023, Café Cotha adult disciples begin a study of the ten theological doctrines contained in Michael Lloyd's book, Café Theology.

Each Sunday, we plan to:

- Think about challenging topics
- Augment our Biblical IQ
- Grow in our ability to discuss God
- Have fun talking over questions of faith
- Engage with different thinkers

About the author

Michael Lloyd is the Principal of Wycliffe Hall in Oxford. He wrote his doctoral thesis on the problem of evil – giving him the infamous name among his students, Dr Evil. Michael studied theology at Durham University, as part of his ordination training at Cranmer Hall. He did his doctoral work at Worcester College Oxford, under Professor Paul Fiddes. He has taught theology at Cambridge and Oxford Universities, and he contributes to the GodPod, a theological podcast.

You get the benefits of Lloyd's scholarship if you read the book. However, reading the book is not obligatory as I will prepare notes and questions for each week. This book is recommended by the Alpha organization.

There are plans to have two special presentations on connected topics in September and October. More on that later.

See you for an introduction to Café Theology on August 13, 9:15 a.m. in Room 102 of Church of the Holy Apostles. Bring a friend. All are welcome.
